
COLLEGIUM ALLIANCE MAP

50 Colleges. 6 Continents. 35 Countries. One University.

A SYNCHRONOUS GLOBAL CAMPUS.

THE ARTEMIS COLLEGIUM

The Artemis Collegium spans 6 continents and 35 countries. Image: Unsplash

The Artemis Collegium is the alliance structure that connects all 50 Colleges into a single, synchronous global campus. Unlike a franchise model or a consortium of independent institutions, the Collegium operates as one university with multiple physical locations. Students are enrolled at the University of Artemis, not at a specific College. They rotate through Colleges during their 4-year programme, experiencing 6 different cities and cultural contexts while maintaining academic continuity through the shared curriculum and tutorial system. The synchronous campus means that a tutorial at 10am in Singapore is attended simultaneously by students in Venice, San Francisco, and Kigali — all in real time.

Region	Colleges	Countries	Central Node
Europe	12	8 (Italy, UK, France, Germany, Spain, Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland)	Venice
Americas	10	6 (USA, Canada, Brazil, Mexico, Argentina, Colombia)	San Francisco
Asia-Pacific	15	12 (Singapore, Japan, India, China, Australia, S. Korea, etc.)	Singapore
Middle East & N. Africa	5	4 (UAE, Saudi Arabia, Morocco, Egypt)	Venice (hub)
Sub-Saharan Africa	5	3 (Rwanda, Kenya, Nigeria)	Venice (hub)
South Asia	3	2 (India, Bangladesh)	Singapore (hub)